

SAVE THE DATE

UNIFIED FRONT: HONORING OUR UNSUNG MILITARY HEROES

March 27th, 2015 7:30 AM–5PM

FREE CONFERENCE (BBS–CEUs for MFTs; LCSWs)

Become informed about diversity in the US Armed Forces and the many challenges, accomplishments and specialized needs of warriors, who fought for the right to fight!

Location: ATT Center

USC City Center

1150 S. Olive Street

2nd Floor Auditorium

Los Angeles, CA 90015

(Easily accessible with use of public transportation via Union Station)

- Japanese WWII Veteran (translated treaty ending WWII)
- Original Montford Point Marine (African American Segregated Marines)
- LGBTQ Member of 113th U.S. Army Medical Company (Combat Stress Control)
- Native American Veterans Association: (WWII/Korean War-Navajo Code Talkers)
 - Women Veteran Representative; Air Force Nurse for Tuskegee Airmen
 - Representative from Latino American–U.S. Air Forces

...and more honored guests to be announced!

For Additional Information: Russana Rowles, LCSW, PPSC, Clinical Associate Professor
USC Field Education Coordinator, Military Social Work Specialty, rrowles@usc.edu